

13. March 2024

Europe/EDI

German-Dutch border talks at the crematorium in Aalten

EUROPE DIRECT Bocholt, VHS Bocholt and Gemeente Aalten invite you // free of charge // register now

The next German-Dutch Border Talks will take place on Tuesday 19 March. This time there will be a guided tour of the crematorium in Aalten, Romienendiek 2a. The free event starts at 7.30 pm. Registrations are welcome at the VHS Bocholt.

Registration for the German-Dutch border talks on 19 March is possible at www.vhs-bocholt.de or at the further education centre on Stenerner Weg on tel. 02871 953-7697.

The head of the crematorium will guide interested citizens through the crematorium. Afterwards, participants are invited to ask questions and discuss. At the end of the tour, visitors will receive information material.

Dutch language skills are not necessary. Everyone can speak in their own language. If there are any communication difficulties, translation is possible. This is a joint event organised by the municipality of Aalten, the VHS and EUROPE DIRECT Bocholt.

The meeting point is the crematorium in Aalten, Romienendiek 2a, at 7.30 pm.

About the EUROPE DIRECT Bocholt

EUROPE DIRECT Bocholt is part of the mayor's office of the city of Bocholt and is the local contact point for questions relating to the European Union. Its task is to provide local citizens with information, advice, help and answers to questions about Europe. In addition, EUROPE DIRECT Bocholt aims to promote European involvement and provide information on current European political events.

Dutch and German flag

© ?