

public Segway tours

..... bookable again at the Tourist-Info Bocholt

Discover Bocholt in a different way...without a bike and without a strenuous walk!

The public Segway tours around Bocholt take you through the city, out into the countryside and to the Aasee lake with an experienced guide.

After a briefing and a test ride on Berliner Platz, the tour starts through Bocholt. Past the Mariengymnasium, along the Bocholter Aa river and past the Protestant Christuskirche church, the Segway tour takes you along low-traffic roads to the city forest. Participants then head towards Hohenhorster Berge and past Bocholter Aasee lake to the podium bridge at the LWL-Museum Textilwerk in the "kubaa" ↗ cultural quarter. The city tour then ends back at the starting point on Berliner Platz.

A short break is planned at the Aasee lake, where those who wish to can stop for refreshments before continuing the tour.
