"On the Path of the Stars"

A musical and literary journey to Santiago de Compostela

Rudolf Guckelsberger - narrator
; Barbara Gräsle - guitar

The historic 'Camino de Santiago' is experiencing a major renaissance. Thousands upon thousands of people from all over the world set out on the 'Way of the Stars', each having their own unique experiences along the way. However, as not everyone has the opportunity to travel to Santiago, the artists offer you the chance to embark on an imaginary pilgrimage with this programme.
From the now almost overwhelming body of literature on the Way of St James, Rudolf Guckelsberger (speaker and presenter at SWR) has compiled texts which, on the one hand, shed light on the historical background of the pilgrimage movement and, on the other, recount the very personal experiences of numerous pilgrims to Santiago.
The selection ranges from texts dating back to the 13th century right up to the well-known modern-day pilgrimage account, Hape Kerkeling's Ich bin dann mal weg.
Guitarist Barbara Gräsle will accompany the walk with music by Heitor Villa-Lobos, Leo Brouwer, Francisco Tarrega and others. And, of course, the popular pilgrim song "Tous les matins nous prenons le chemin" will also be performed.

Admission: €22 for all seats
