The "CityArt% art market, organised by Hans Michael Spogahn, stretches from Neutorplatz to Marktplatz$1, organised by Hans Michael Spogahn, stretches from Neutorplatz to Marktplatz, offering visitors the chance to discover and purchase artworks by more than 60 artists not only from Bocholt, but from across North Rhine-Westphalia, the Netherlands and Ukraine.

Let yourself be enchanted by the atmospheric ambience and enjoy a stroll amongst the market stalls and cafés, accompanied by live music.

On the market square, children and young people can take part in artistic activities independently and free of charge under the guidance of members of the Bocholt Art and Culture Association, staff from the Bocholt City Archives, the LWL Textile Museum Bocholt and other organisers, giving free rein to their creativity.
