

Bocholt Culture Days 2026 - Super Drum Show

OPEN AIR at the Market Square: 25 years of the Alte Molkerei - We're celebrating with you! Saturday, 29 August // from 5.15 pm

An exciting event for the whole family

No prior experience is required; anyone can take part, regardless of age or cultural background. Following a rousing opening performance, every member of the audience is given a drum (the "Bucket") and a pair of drumsticks, making them part of the SUPER TROMMEL SHOW.

Professional drummer SUPER SASCHA and his team teach the participants all the essential skills for the show in a flash.

Little by little, the necessary beats and breaks fall into place, so that everyone can drum along to the backing tracks of world-famous hits. The excitement level of the XXL SHOW rises steadily from 0 to 100, generating pure enthusiasm with the unbridled power of several hundred drums.

This interactive event is unique in Germany, exhilarating and fosters a sense of community - together, something great is created, to which all SUPER TROMMLERS make an important contribution.
