

Fabse Open 26

Your match. Your moment.

From a crazy idea to a tournament.

In a laid-back episode of Köpfe & Töpfe ↗, Lars and Christian had a brilliant idea: why not organise a tennis tournament? Over a glass of wine and plenty of banter, the Fabse Open was born. Fabian, usually better known for his culinary skills, swaps his wooden spoon for a tennis racket. Now it's getting serious: a mix of beginners and advanced players, €1,000 in prize money and, above all, plenty of fun on the court. The event will be accompanied by laid-back beats and a delicious glass of wine.
