In her autobiography "Mrs Müller, the Migrant - How Germany and I Got Used to Each Other", Evelyne Waithira Müller recounts her journey from Kenya to Germany in a candid, humorous and moving way.

She writes about loneliness, culture shock and racism, but also about courage, personal growth and successful integration.

Through personal stories, she encourages reflection on prejudice, living together and social change. An inspiring reading full of authenticity, depth and optimism.

Registration via www.vhs-bocholt.de, at the VHS office and at the municipal library
