

Historical city tour

The Bocholt night watchman greets his guests at St George's Fountain in medieval dress, with halberd and bugle.

On his 90-minute tour of the town, he guides participants through the dark alleyways and the history of the town of Bocholt in 1665 by the light of his lantern. He explains the history of buildings, squares and streets with humour and knowledge and talks vividly about the everyday life of the townspeople.

Participation fee:

12,50 € per person

Meeting point:

Under the arches of Bocholt's historic town hall

Duration:

approx. 90 minutes
