K!NNERS

"Family is not something you choose."

www.kinnersmusic.de ↗

Our family tree is contaminated! As the illegitimate offspring of Campino and Farin U., K!NNERS have dedicated themselves to (punk) rock.

In 2018, the younger siblings founded the band in Hamm (Westphalia) in the spirit of the Broilers and the Donots. In the midst of a likeable punk spirit, social issues and moments from everyday life are set to music in German, accompanied by easily accessible melodies and loud guitars.

Kolja (vocals), Ulf (drums), Lena (bass), Peter (guitar) and Fabian (guitar) also show live how they bring their sing-along-friendly noise emission to the audience in an energetic and entertaining way, catchy tunes and freak-outs guaranteed!

K!NNERS can now look back on numerous smaller and larger concerts and festival appearances, including the h4-Fest in Hamm (2023), Tönnis Rockt in Ahlen (2024) and the Kapelle Somma in Hamm (2024). The band supported Kapelle Petra, among others.

And so K!NNERS " have become an integral part of the German-speaking punk rock scene" (Blattturbo.com) and released their first album "Rebellion der Optimisten" in May 2025, after 5 EPs. The family tree is contaminated, but it continues to blossom

Gin for a Done

Gin for a Done is a dynamic female-fronted band that effortlessly fuses the raw energy of punk with the intensity of post-hardcore. Through the smoky and powerful voice of their female vocalist, the band delivers a unique musical experience that captivates the audience.

Their sound is characterised by a modern and innovative structure that integrates melodic elements to bring depth and emotion to their compositions. Gin for a Done navigates the landscapes of punk and post-hardcore with finesse, seamlessly alternating between aggressive and melodic passages, as in their latest single "Phalanx".

Inspired by bands like Paramore, Stand Atlantic and Future Palace, they create their own deep sound that never lets people go.
