When Les Dames - Brigitte Siff and Constanze Schick - take to the stage, nothing stays the same. With a sharp eye, dry humour and a healthy dose of enthusiasm, the pair slip into a wide variety of characters and don't mince their words. Whether they're quirky contemporaries, endearing nuisances or characters that make you briefly wonder: "Is that actually allowed?" - Les Dames delight in exploring the boundaries between everyday life, absurdity and biting humour. The roles change faster than New Year's resolutions in January: one moment they're chatting harmlessly, the next two completely different characters are suddenly on stage. Each with her own story, her quirks and, guaranteed, an opinion on everything. Les Dames serve up comedy with a dark soul, a sharp tongue and plenty of relatable moments. Sometimes absurd, sometimes wicked, sometimes surprisingly human - but always with a twinkle in the eye. An evening for everyone who loves a good laugh. And for anyone who catches themselves laughing at things they really shouldn't be laughing at. Les Dames - two women, many roles and guaranteed not to be a run-of-the-mill evening.
