

Martin Kroner

LIVE&HAUTNAH

Free entry

Martin Kroner is a North German boy with North German problems. And so his songs are about growing up, love, pain, the rain (in Lower Saxony, of course) and one or two realisations.

Wrapped in a cloak of personal stories and lively interplay with colleagues Paul & Peer, this trio offers a mixture of German pop, soft rock, country and singer-songwriter - often in three voices, always with cajon, guitar and all their soul.

Kroner has already opened shows with his music for: Bosse, Revolverheld, Tonbandgerät, Nie&Nimmer, Batomae, Die Happy, Max Prosa, Ryan Sheridan and many more. There, the 34-year-old has been able to prove that it's worth coming along and being open to new things.
