

Consultation hours for founders in Bocholt

Registration is required for the counselling appointments.

Regardless of whether you only have a vague business idea or already have a written concept, the business development agency for the Borken district as a certified STARTERCENTER NRW provides individual advice and helps founders to realise their plans.

In individual initial consultations, those interested in setting up a business receive initial orientation and sector-specific information. In follow-up counselling sessions, various questions about the start-up project can be discussed in greater depth. The feasibility of the planned project is always checked. Opportunities and risks are weighed up.

Counselling contents

- A decision-making aid
- a start-up roadmap for the next steps
- If required, referral to further contacts
- Explanation of the funding programmes
- Clarification of the respective funding instruments
- Suggestions and assistance for drawing up the business plan
