The Art of Pleasing: Fashion and Elegance from Castiglione to the Present Day | Lecture with a champagne reception on 8 October 2026 at 6.00 pm at the LWL-MUSEUM Textilwerk

Fashion is meant to appeal. But appeal does not come from clothing alone. What matters is the interplay between outward appearance and social elegance - that is, between clothing, demeanour, gestures and charm.

In his lecture, Dr Kersten Knipp explores how this form of elegant presentation has evolved from the Renaissance, through European salon culture, to the present day.

Date: Thursday 8 October 2026, 6.00 pm

Cost: €10.00, including museum admission
