After the death of their mother, sisters Nora and Agnes Borg are faced with the challenge of coming to terms with their estranged father Gustav. Gustav is a former celebrated director who has now been largely forgotten. Nora has uncompromisingly pursued her career as a theatre actress, while Agnes has chosen a quieter life with a family and a steady job. Gustav has written a new script and offers his daughter Nora the leading role, but she firmly rejects the offer.

The film lasts 133 minutes.

The film was directed by Joachim Trier.

Trailer and tickets are available at www.kinodrom.de

The film series "KINO Bocholt - the special film" has existed since 1977 as a cooperation between the Department of Education and Culture of the City of Bocholt and Kinodrom Bocholt. The aim is to make unusual films that are not otherwise shown in the regular programme accessible to a wide audience. As a rule, selected productions are shown every second and fourth Tuesday of the month. Admission is €7.
