The municipality of Oude Ijsselstreek is located in the south-east of the Achterhoek region. The whole area is crossed by the rivers Oude Ijssel, the Aa and Bovenslinge.

The municipality has a lot to offer its visitors: One of the biggest attractions here is nature. The beautiful surroundings invite you to rest and relax.

Those who want to be active in sports will also find plenty of opportunities here: Cycling, hiking, horse riding, inline skating, swimming, canoeing and much more!

Cultural highlight DRU Factory

During a tour of the city centre, there is also much to discover: The monumental open-air theatre, the 14th century farm museum or the old foundry that has been converted into the DRU culture factory. Iron was the cradle of economic activity in Oude IJsselstreek. The processing of this metal is presented in the new DRU Iron Museum.

There are many other ways to spend time in Oude IJsselstreek. The municipality offers a wide range of event and accommodation possibilities. All activities and events can be found in the VVV Oude IJsselstreek.
