Under the title "Sympathisch Verpeilt", 24-year-old singer/songwriter Alexander Seidl invites you to his very first concert ever in Bocholt at the Alte Molkerei. The young artist has been performing his own songs on stage for more than 10 years and, accompanied only by guitar and voice, tries to express his very own view of the rapidly changing world. For him, "Sympathisch Verpeilt" is not just a song title or the title of his first live album, rather it is a kind of attitude to life, not always taking the world too seriously (alongside all the serious topics). What exactly is meant by this, everyone will find out on 14 January at the big New Year's concert in the Alte Molkerei.

And by everyone, really everyone is meant.

The young artist's music has something in store for all ages. The predominantly German compositions tell of themes such as friendship, love, hope or life itself. From slow and soulful to fast and loud - this concert evening is full of surprises.

Alexander Seidl is a 23-year-old singer/songwriter from Ratingen. Since the age of 13, the young musician has been writing his own songs and has since found a new home on the stages of Ratingen and the surrounding area. Accompanied only by guitar and his voice, he tries to express his view of the rapidly changing world. Sometimes with a wink, sometimes naive and slightly romantic, but always hopeful and honest.
