Sandra (Sandra Hüller) lives with her husband Manuel and their visually impaired son Daniel in a remote little village in the French Alps.

One day, Sandra and her son Samuel find her husband dead in the snow outside the house.

An investigation is launched into the cause of death. Discrepancies pile up and Sandra soon becomes the main suspect in the case and has to defend herself in court.

A long trial ensues in which the couple are closely scrutinised, with their son Daniel also taking part.
