Ann Vriend, AV for short, is an artist to whom the now overused word "exceptional singer" applies in the fullest and best sense: Ann Vriend, who comes from Edmonton, Canada, has such an expressive, powerful, soul-soaked voice that any other description would be an understatement. On her latest album entitled "EVERYBODY MATTERS", AV, whose music creates a sound universe all its own between groovy neo-soul and thoughtful roots-oriented singer-songwriter pop, proves her outstanding vocal presence and compositional finesse.

In the past few months AV has performed across Canada, Japan, Australia, Scotland, Germany, Austria, Belgium and the Netherlands. In the spring of 2022, she played a mega-successful tour through Detuschland, Austria and Switzerland with over 30 mostly sold-out concerts. AV is almost legendary live for her charming interaction with the audience as well as her always enthusiastically received, self-deprecating Canadian humour (interspersed with more or less disastrous attempts to communicate in German). This is how AV has managed to play live in front of small audiences, large audiences and very large audiences - embodying both the "girl next door" and igniting storms of enthusiasm with her emotionally charged, powerful-voiced performances.

Multi Award-Winning Soul Artist AV (Ann Vriend) Live in Concert

“What a voice, what a performance... She had a commanding stage presence and a control of dynamics that actually made my jaw drop.”
