The maypole is up, the flower tubs are hanging: Everything is ready for "Bocholt blossoms".

On Sunday, when the shops are open, Bocholt will once again host a big vintage car rally with lots of cars, music and activities.

The shops open from 13:00-18:00.

Classic cars in the city centre

This coming Sunday will make the hearts of many classic car fans beat faster again. With hopefully good weather, many old automobile treasures will once again be on display in the city centre. Many clubs and classic car enthusiasts have been invited to come to Bocholt with their vehicles and exhibit them in the Liebfrauenviertel, at the Easter market, on the market square and St. Georg-Platz.

The event will be rounded off on the one hand by vintage tractors, which will provide excitement in front of the shopping arcades, and on the other hand by some vintage fire engines from the Bocholt City Fire Brigade Association, an interest group for the preservation of historic fire brigade technology, which will make the eyes of young and old alike light up on Neutorplatz.

Sunday open for business

At the same time, the shops in the city centre will be inviting visitors to shop and stroll around on this first open Sunday from 1-6 p.m. with lots of great offers. "We are looking forward to a Sunday for the whole family, which is sure to have a personal highlight for everyone", says city marketing manager Ludger Dieckhues.

Free bus transport

StadtBus Bocholt GmbH is organising a free special service on this Sunday at the usual timetable intervals.

Free parking

Free parking is available throughout the city centre (except in the Stadtparkasse underground car park). Locals are advised to come by bike.

The Bocholt Blüht campaign is supported by Bocholter Energie- und Wasserversorgung, Caisley GmbH, Automobile Leiting, Otzen & Pierkes and Autokrane Schares.

Private-public partnership - thanks to the financial and organisational efforts of the advertising associations in cooperation with Stadtmarketing and an additional contribution from the city of Bocholt, this private-public partnership project will once again succeed in beautifying the city centre streets with floral decorations this summer.
