On 15 December at 15:00, the puppet show "Conni kommt weihnachtlich" will take place in the Biemenhorst community centre (Willi-Pattberg-Ring 2, 46395 Bocholt). Children aged four and over can look forward to an exciting puppet show. The puppet show will be performed by the Mülheim puppet theatre.

Content:

Oh, mummy is going away. Oh, for 4 days! Everything goes well. Only her throat stings. And my nose is running... and it's so hot, but luckily Dad is there and so are Mau and Jakob.

Once they're healthy again, it's time for pizza. Simon, Conni's kindergarten friend, can bake a real pizza! Can't he? Of course he can. With a lot of zest for action, they get to work. Yes, cooking for yourself is fun!

Tickets

Tickets for the puppet show "Conni kommt weihnachtlich" are available from the theatre office (Meckenemstraße 10, 46395 Bocholt). The ticket price is €6.00. With a family pass, children only pay €3.00.
