

BOHJazz - Concert

Skylounge // Free admission // Soloist Max Blumentrath on the organ

© Jan Tervooren

On Thursday, 7 December, jazz guitarist Christian Hassenstein's trio will once again be playing in the Skylounge of the TextilWerk in Industriestraße 5, 46395 Bocholt. The concert starts at 8.00 pm and admission is free. The soloist at this concert is Max Blumentrath on the organ. Christian Hassenstein is on guitar and Benedikt Hesse on drums.

The soloist

Max Blumentrath is a Hammond organist and pianist. In 2012, he successfully completed his master's degree in Hammond organ at the University of Dresden, where he was most recently a student of Matthias Bätzel at the Carl Maria von Weber University of Music. He learnt from international organists and attended many masterclasses. Max Blumentrath is characterised by many musical visits, for example to Copenhagen, Berlin, Amsterdam and New York. He has also taken part in workshops such as the European Jazz Academy 2006 and the We-Love-Jazz Workshop 2008 in Italy. He currently plays in various ensembles, mostly as an organist, but also as a pianist.

The event is supported by the Stadtparkasse Bocholt.
