Curious visitors can once again look forward to interesting compositions by this unique combination. On Thursday, 19 October, singer Sanna van Vliet will be a guest with Christian Hassenstein on guitar, Sven Schuster on double bass and Joost Kesselaar on drums. The concert will take place in the Skylounge of the LWL Museum and starts at 8 pm.

The event is supported by the Stadtparkasse.

The soloist

Sanna van Vliet studied at the Royal Conservatory in The Hague and graduated in jazz singing and jazz piano. She has toured internationally, recorded four CDs and performed with many other famous Dutch jazz artists. Sanna developed her very own improvisation method and has been teaching it since 2002. She now teaches at the Conservatory in Amsterdam and gives online courses to participants all over the world. She trained as a Complete Vocal Technique teacher and has been an authorised teacher for this method since 2009.
