Kinderaktionen vor dem Rathaus

Bocholt's city centre once again becomes an adventure playground for young and old.

While parents shop, stroll, meet friends for a drink, ice cream, cake or snack, children can let off steam on the various playground equipment in the city centre.

- Many interesting play opportunities throughout the city centre
- Sales open from 1 to 6 p.m.
- Free parking in the entire city centre
- Free special transport by the Bocholt StadtBus
- Temporary seating with beanbags & deckchairs

Discover play possibilities

From 1 p.m. to 6 p.m., there will be a variety of playground equipment spread throughout the city centre that can be used free of charge. There will be a large football dartboard and a bouncy castle on Neutorplatz, a bouncy castle will also be set up at the entrance to the Shopping Arkaden, there will be a climbing mountain on Markt, a rodeo on St.-Georg-Platz, a bouncy castle on Ostermarkt, a games mobile on Gasthausplatz and at the end of Nordstraße you can practice shooting at a goal wall. The scouts invite you to play Viking chess at the market and there is a scout yurt tent on St. George's Square where there will be hands-on activities.

Temporary seating

If the weather plays along, beanbags and deckchairs (known from the Aasee Festival) will be distributed at various places in the city centre, inviting people to relax - without any compulsion to consume, this is another temporary contribution to increasing attractiveness.
