

Exhibition OFC- Panta Rhei

Vernissage

OFC - Oostgelders Fotografen Collectief

Under the title Panta Rhei, OFC , a group of artists/photographers from East Gelderland (the Netherlands), exhibits large-format prints on tarpaulin. These are part of a larger exhibition that took place in Bredevoort in 2022.

Panta Rhei (Old Greek for "everything flows") stands for constant change. Eight members express their personal views on this. They delved into this theme and developed a variety of ideas. Sometimes they are closer to the constant and sometimes closer to the changeable. What the members have in common is curiosity, a personal approach and the high level of commitment that speaks from their images.

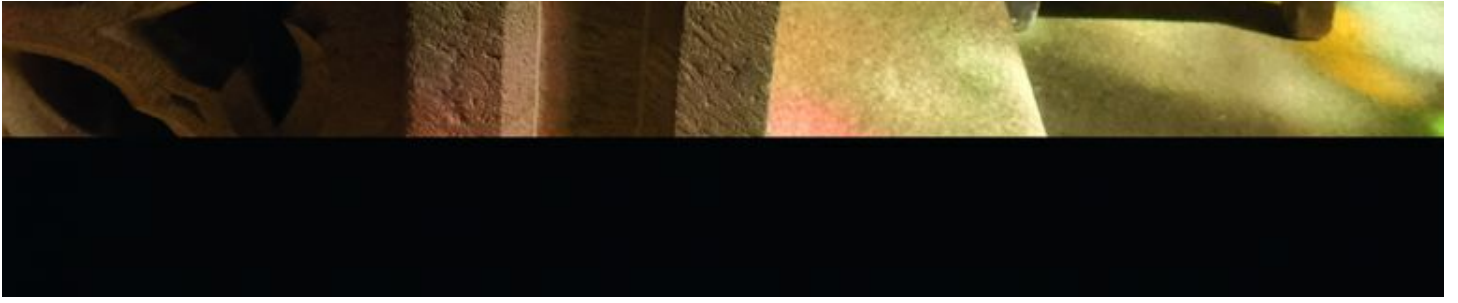

The OFC is made up of professional and non-professional photographers and artists. Each member has their own area of interest. The group has experience with exhibitions in museum spaces. The aim is to adapt the works shown there to the location.

The works shown in the Old Dairy are by : Bettina Hogeweg, Gerjo te Linde, Laura de Morree, Judith Spook, Peter van Tuyl, Ton van Vroonhoven, Gert Wielink and Dinie Wikkerink.

The photographs will also be on display at each event until the beginning of November.
