

Heart panic - A Udo Lindenberg show

Music revue

Udo Lindenberg - music revue, performed by the Landestheater Detmold.

With the revue "Herzpanik" we dive headfirst into Lindenberg's universe. In his songs, the eternally cool Udo Lindenberg, who mutated into a rock icon, created an unprecedented slang. And with his casual, crumbling language, he created a world in which there are no problems, only trials to be overcome. We immerse ourselves in his stories about the little world-weariness that only makes the love of life grow.

Admission price: 19,- Euro
