Bruno Müller/Jonathan Böbel Quartet

Bruno Müller (guitar), Jonathan Böbel (trombone), Henning Gailing (bass), Niklas Walter (drums)

In the tradition of American live and session musicians like Tommy Tedesco or Lee Ritenour and inspired by artists like George Benson, Robben Ford, Eric Gale and Johnny Guitar Watson, Bruno Müller is considered one of the most established guitarists in Europe. The main feature of his musical personality? Clearly his filigree craftsmanship paired with stylistic flexibility between pop, soul, funk and jazz. But above all: his breathtaking groove.

The young Cologne trombonist Jonathan Böbel is an absolute exceptional talent in his generation. Inspired by Carl Fontana and Frank Rosolino, he uses the musical language of swing, bebop and hard bop with stylistic confidence.
