"a voyage" is a poetic sound journey, a moving listening experience & a cinematic classical-guitar-electronica trip. Classical, ethnic music and urban sounds take you from the hustle and bustle of London's Picadilly Circus to the tranquil lake in Provence, to the beach in Sardinia, to the jazz club in New Orleans and to the distant Orient. Short sound snippets or guitar sequences recorded with the microphone are transformed live and in seconds into multi-layered and unique sounds and grooves with the looper. In this way, the musician from the Ruhr area transforms himself into a complex one-man ensemble of classical guitar, percussion and live-recorded or programmed loops, only to be enchanted again a few moments later with just the pure natural sound of the nylon guitar. "a voyage" promises a concert experience beyond the boundaries of ordinary musical pigeonholes.

Press reviews:

"The new album by guitarist, composer and sound tinkerer Jürgen Saalmann places the concert guitar in a different context: thus the musician has interwoven the natural sound as tastefully as skilfully with synthetic sounds, samples and beats. The result is a work of world music that harmonises styles and sounds in an ingenious way. ... an all-round successful work." (Magazine Akustik Gitarre)

"Atmospheric and impressive..." (BR KLassik)

"Jürgen Saalmann convinced with complexity and instrumental sovereignty" (Rheinische Post)

"A musical Einstein, a gifted guitarist and bassist, a versatile performer. His compositions sound high-quality, coherent and original." (Concerto)

"An interesting blend of acoustic guitar music, folky melodies, hip beats and atmospheric soundscapes. The right thing for the wanderlust cinema in your head. Guitarist Jürgen Saalmann contrasts modernity and tradition, acoustic and electronic, concrete and ambient in a highly musical way." (Folker)
