Mr. Brassident is an eight-piece formation from North Rhine-Westphalia that uses wind instruments and drums to create an adventurous arch over the hits from rock and pop, funk and soul, cinema and television of the past decades right up to the present.

The musicians translate their repertoire of chilling pop, soulful grooves, pumping funk and hammering metal rhythms humorously into the analogue world of brass music and thus ensure a dazzlingly good mood for young and old.

Brazzy Funk

Brazzy Funk is a six-piece brass band from Heiden/ Westphalia, formed in 2017. They draw largely on the broad musical palette of the New York underground brass band "Lucky Chops", who describe their music as high-energy, brassy (brazzy) funk. The repertoire includes brass band covers of well-known jazz, funk, soul and pop songs from past decades to the present, as well as works composed by the Lucky Chops themselves.
