A mixture of jazz, R'n'B, soul and gospel: that is the music of Maja Mannila from Helsinki. At the Münsterland Festival, the talented singer, pianist and composer will be on stage at Diepenbrock Castle and Liesborn Abbey Museum together with her trio: with Severi Sorjonen on drums and Johannes Granroth on bass. With their English-language songs, they embody freedom and pure joy in music.

Maja Mannila has already performed with renowned artists such as singer Anthony Strong, and together with pianist Iiro Rantala, her trio recently toured Central Europe with great success. In addition, Mannila was chosen as Finland's official representative at the Nordic Jazz Comets 2023 programme.

The young artist's highly acclaimed debut album "Up & Down" was released in June 2022, and her second album is announced for autumn 2023.

Tickets can be purchased online in advance. A regular ticket costs 23€ and a reduced ticket 19€. On the day of the concert there will be a box office where you can buy tickets for 27€ or reduced for 23€. Before the concert, at 5.30pm, you will have the opportunity to take a guided tour of Diepenbrock Castle, for an extra €2.

The concert is part of the Münsterland Festival part 12.
