During the popular Bocholt Christmas market, the shops in Bocholt city centre will open their doors on the 3rd Sunday in Advent, 15 December, from 1pm to 6pm. The very special atmosphere in the city centre with wonderful offers in the huts, Christmas activities in front of the historic town hall, hundreds of Christmas trees, thousands of lights with mulled wine and punch and Christmas smells everywhere, will once again attract thousands of visitors to Bocholt this year to do some shopping before Christmas. The shops in the city centre, on Neutorplatz and in the shopping arcades will be tempting visitors with special Christmas offers on this day.

On this open Sunday, parking in the city centre is free from 1-6 p.m. (except in the Stadtparkasse underground car park).
