Curtain up - radio on! Reis Against The Spülmachine present their own radio station in their third stage programme. "Radio Reis - Die Hitwelle" broadcasts the best of yesterday, today and tomorrow - world hits with wit. The good-mood songwriters turn up the heat again and promise nothing but smash hits. All on a frequency that goes down well everywhere, even without a transmitter mast.

The music-comedy duo from Buxtehude and Oldenburg is known for its hilarious song parodies and the gift of being able to put any audience in an ecstatic party mood. That's why they've not only won song slams and swept comedy and cabaret awards, but also function as a musical all-purpose weapon at renowned festivals and in time-honoured rock halls.

As always, the new programme focuses on numerous evergreens from music history, which the duo parodies, tweaks and combines to bring a smile to the face of even the last grouch. Falco's "Amadeus" becomes "Hammer Teewurst" and Elvis is and remains "In the Netto". In the end, the crowd surfs together on a wave of hits and euphoria.

From Bach to Backstreet Boys, from Rock 'n' Roll to NDW - no era is safe from the two. There is something for everyone here. Whether it's criticism of online trade, property prices that are too high or a hymn of praise to the building fence - Reis Against The Dishmachine take care of the really important issues of humanity. Everything else is just Radio Gaga.

The show is peppered with everything that belongs to a good radio programme. A programme of stature, so to speak. Tune in! From October 2022 on all good stages.
