When Reiner's doorbell rings, he doesn't expect death to be at his door, telling him he only has three minutes to live. But at the same moment, Reiner's ex-girlfriend Sophia turns up to pick him up for his mother's birthday.

This pushes Reiner's time of death further and further back. Together, the three of them embark on a chaotic journey, first to Reiner's mother and then to his seven-year-old son Johnny. Death seems to be enjoying his unplanned holiday on earth, if it weren't for the second death, who is supposed to finish the job.
