At a young age, pianist Jenny was considered a piano prodigy. She is imprisoned for 15 years for a murder she did not commit.

The real murderer is her childhood sweetheart, who has since become an internationally acclaimed star.

Her faith in God and her relationship with a Syrian musician begin to falter as she feels an increasing desire for revenge. The two meet again after years on a TV show and a fight to the death ensues.

A moving showdown with an outstanding acting performance by Hanna Herzprung in the role of Jenny, which she also played 15 years ago in the first film.

Director: Chris Kraus, 120 minutes
