Timo Brandt is a singer/songwriter from Dingden near Wesel on the Lower Rhine.

Lower Rhine. To roughly categorise his music, one can say that after his sometimes compared with musicians like Passenger, Damien Rice, Ben Howard or David Gray. He writes songs about the longing for something more, the search for meaning for meaning, for God, for himself and for life in between the daily grind. If you listen through the rhythm of his guitar playing and are hit by his voice, you immediately feel that he is you immediately feel that he is 100% serious about what he is doing. He finds catchy tunes and melodies that touch you, but he never sounds as if he is trying to write a hit, to write a hit. He released his first official album "Grounded" in 2018 via Timezone Records and received excellent reviews in the trade press.

in the trade press. In 2023 Timo Brandt has new songs in his luggage and presents his next album which will be released in autumn 2023.

"Timo's voice has something special. Power.

Something wants to come out without being obtrusive."

- An attentive photographer after a concert in Oberhausen -.

"Then when he started to sing, everything changed:

He had something to tell, and it gripped him and the audience:

Eyes closed, stomping the rhythm while he sang and played the guitar.

and played the guitar, he opened up other spheres."

- The Westfälischer Anzeiger after a performance in Hamm -.

"With a voice and songs that don't have to hide from Albert Hammond, and a heavenly and a heavenly cello accompaniment, the multi-instrumentalist presents an album with eleven multi-instrumentalist presents an album with eleven potential acoustic folk hits."

- Chris Elstrodt - "Der Folker" magazine -
