

Women's Finance Fair "Woman Work & Money"

Do you regularly negotiate your salary with confidence? Do you actually know exactly how much pension you will receive one day? Are you well insured against life risks such as illness or divorce? Find out more at the "Woman Work & Money" fair, organised by the Catholic Women's Community of Germany (Kfd) in cooperation with the city of Bocholt.

Tickets also available at the box office

Tickets for the Women's Finance Fair will also be available at the box office on 17 June.

Be financially independent, build assets, invest in shares, negotiate your salary with confidence, be secure and be successful! The Women's Fair offers visitors tools to achieve these goals.

Look forward to an exciting day where you and your professional and financial goals will take centre stage! Be inspired and inspired by top-class and interesting speakers.

The highlights: The financial expert and founder of "herMoney" Anne E. Conelly will open our event with her lecture "This is how financial independence works!!" We are also looking forward to Helma Sick, financial columnist for "Brigitte", and her talk "A man is not an old-age provision!".

The fair is organised by the Kfd in cooperation with the city of Bocholt.

Working together on the programme for the fair (from left:) Deputy Chairperson Reinhilde Riesenbeck, Education Officers Sandra Cichon and Alice Reifig and Regional Spokesperson Barbara Richter-Hoffschlag from the Kfd Diocesan Association Münster together with Astrid Schupp, Equal Opportunities Officer of the City of Bocholt
