

Bocholt Culture Days

Make a note of the date! From 26 August to 30 August 2026, the market square in front of the historic town hall will once again be transformed into Bocholt's centre for art and culture. Look forward to five days full of inspiration and top-class entertainment in the open air.

Whether rousing theatre, relaxed jazz or modern performance: the Bocholt Culture Days once again offer a varied programme for all ages this year. Enjoy the special atmosphere in front of the historic town hall.

Don't miss a thing! We will publish the detailed programme in good time here on this page and on our social media channels.
