Gaining momentum for the somersault

Marquis's 'Looping the Loop' is pure fairground nostalgia: this historic looping swing dates back to the 1930s and operates entirely without a motor to power the gondolas. It's all down to your own physical effort here - with momentum, shifting your weight and good timing, you make the cage-style gondola loop over by yourself. In total, the swing can accommodate 16 people in eight gondolas.
