

Markets

Shopping and chatting

It is not only the weekly market in front of the beautiful backdrop of the historic town hall that attracts visitors to the town centre with its rich offer and tranquil atmosphere. The weekly evening market with its culinary temptations and the colourful range of products on offer at the Krammarkt are also points of attraction in Bocholt. Market day means shopping, chatting, meeting acquaintances and enjoying the quality and variety of the products.

Bocholt weekly market

The Bocholt weekly market takes place four times a week on the market in front of the historic town hall and on Gasthausplatz. Around 25 local market traders offer a wide variety of products: Potted and cut flowers, herbs, seeds as well as fruit and vegetables, fish, meat, poultry, cheese, eggs, bread, spices, organic products and Mediterranean delicacies.

Bocholt evening market

Every Thursday from 3 - 7 pm, the Bocholt Evening Market takes place on the market in front of the Historic Town Hall.

Visitors have the opportunity here to stock up on women's outerwear, nightwear and underwear for women, men and children, fruit and vegetables, fresh fish and fish snacks, nut varieties, dried fruit and chocolates, delicatessen, oils and spices .

In the summer season, the evening market is considered a real meeting place.

Bocholt Stuff Market

Many useful everyday items and an extensive range of products are on offer at the Bocholt Krammarkt.

The market traders present their wares on Gasthausplatz, St.-Georg-Platz, the market in front of the historic town hall, on Nordstraße, Osterstraße, Neustraße and Neutorplatz.
