Family planner of the Kinderschutzbund 2026 available from Saturday

Kinderschutzbund Bocholt publishes annual calendar for 2026 // First on sale on 27 September 2025 // Protective fee of 1 euro

The Bocholt local chapter of the Child Protection Association is once again publishing a family planner for 2026. Deputy Mayor Elisabeth Kroesen bought the first family planner at the official presentation of the project on 24 September. Associations, institutions and organisations in Bocholt that are committed to children or young people contributed to the design of the calendars.

The result is a colourful mix of providers in Bocholt who introduce themselves on the 12 pages of the family planner - the popular birthday calendar is also included again.

On Saturday, 27 September, the first sale of the family planner will take place in the arcades in Bocholt from 10 am to 2 pm. The Child Protection Association will also be handing out free K.O. drop test bracelets to raise awareness of these as a protective measure.

The family planner will then be available at the following sales outlets for a nominal fee of 1 euro:

- Child Protection Association
- Family education centre
- Bocholt City Library
- Bocholt Tourist Information Centre
- Stamp Meyer
- Shopping Arcades, Infopoint

The city of Bocholt and Stempel Meyer support the project financially and through editorial co-operation. The family planner received additional financial support from Stadtparkasse Bocholt and BEW.
