

22. June 2022

Children and youth

Still free places for European youth camp in Bocholt

July 10-16 for young people between 14-17 years old at the Europa House

From July 10-16, a youth camp will take place in Bocholt, in which young people between 14-17 years can participate, who want to have international encounters with peers from the twin towns of Bocholt. There are still remaining places available, informs the city of Bocholt, which co-organizes the camp.

The youth camp will take place in the Europa-Haus Bocholt under the motto "Come together: Olympia in the European town of Bocholt". Young people from Albania, Belgium, England, the Netherlands and Lithuania will participate. Cooperation partners are the Europe-direct Bocholt the friendly and twin towns of Bocholt as well as the "Stichting Aover de gäöt" (Netherlands).

The own contribution for accommodation, meals and program amounts to 50 euros. Interested young people from Bocholt can register until June 27, 2022 with the partnership officer of the city of Bocholt, Petra Taubach, under Tel. 02871 953-258 or by e-mail petra.taubach\(at\)bocholt\(dot\)debocholt(dot)de).

More information in the press release of 27 May 2022.

Die Gruppe aus Akmene (Litauen) bildet das Wort "Come" (englisch für komm) für die Teilnahme am Jugendcamp 2020, das nun mit dem "Förderpreis für interkulturellen Dialog" ausgezeichnet wurde.

© Irina Mikulevic, Akmene (LT)