

20. December 2022

Children and youth

Winners of "Bocholt spielt!" receive prizes

At the end of November, the popular event "Bocholt spielt!" took place for the 9th time, where around 1,000 participants were able to play and test hundreds of parlor and board games to their heart's content. There was also a raffle. The winners now received their prizes at the Bocholt "Spielebude" on Nordstraße.

At "Bocholt spielt!" visitors were allowed to vote for their favorite game. 115 votes were cast. This time the choice fell on the game "Showtime", followed by "Micro Macro", "Cascadia", "Monopoly", "Eiermatsch" and "Abluxxen".

Björn Große-Homann (1st place, Bocholt), Marlene Schilderink (2nd, Bocholt), Carola Schwers (3rd, Bocholt), Mika Bersch (4th, Dissen im Teuroburger Wald), Christine Schmeinck (5th, Bocholt) and Clara Hams (6th, Rhede) were among the lucky winners and were each allowed to choose one of the top games.

Next year, "Bocholt spielt!" will be held again in November, as Ullrich Kuhlmann from the organizing association Jugend und soziale Arbeit (JUSA) announced to everyone's anticipation.

About "Bocholt spielt!"

The event traditionally takes place at the end of November at the Lowicker St. Bernhard School and always attracts many visitors who feel like playing parlor and board games - from classics to new releases. The aim is to focus on gaming as a social community experience for all generations.

The event is organized by the association Jugend und soziale Arbeit (JUSA) in cooperation with the Bocholt "Spielebude" and supported by the city of Bocholt. Lina Szymkowiak and Christopher Hellmuth were responsible for the organization. The main sponsor is Volksbank Bocholt.

Die glücklichen Gewinnerinnen und Gewinner von "Bocholt spielt!" nehmen in der Bocholter "Spielebude" ihre Preise in Empfang. Die Volksbank Bocholt unterstützt als Hauptsponsor die Veranstaltung.

© Stadt Bocholt