Andre Nowicki - after 27 years it's over

Long-time employee of the city of Bocholt retires

After 27 years in public service, Andre Nowicki is now retiring. He is full of gratitude for his, soon to be former, colleagues.

With Andre Nowicki, a long-time employee is leaving the city of Bocholt, first at the recycling center and most recently for nine years in the mailroom. Andre is known as a helpful, reliable employee on whom colleagues could count.

During his time in the mailroom, he worked in various constellations and with changing supervisors, and was always approachable by everyone - sometimes as the sole full-time employee.

At the end of each working day, the mail has been distributed, the trips have been made, and the orders have been completed. Andre Nowicki loves his job and the team he works with. It is a matter of personal concern to him to express his great praise for his colleagues. He has never experienced a better working atmosphere.

He is optimistic about the future and has a lot of plans for the future. Andre Nowicki is the father of two grown-up children, a family man through and through, and has a few more caravan trips planned with his wife.
