

15. February 2023

City Hall

Vacancies: Bocholt municipal administration is looking for reinforcement

Apply now until 4 March 2023

The city of Bocholt is currently advertising various positions.

In the fire brigade, the positions of head of the administration division as well as the accounting office in the administration are to be filled.

In addition, a person is to be recruited in the area of property and land management for the processing of residential building land and citizens' service, property matters.

The deadline for applications is 4 March 2023.

Further information and online application at www.bocholt.de/rathaus/karriere 