"Bocholt reads" - book presentation: novelties and favorite books

The public library team presents current book hits and their favorite books // Wednesday, December 7, 7:30 p.m.

On Wednesday, December 7, the last "Bocholt reads" event of this year will take place: Worth reading - book novelties and favorite books. The team of the municipal library presents a mixture of fiction, non-fiction and children's and youth literature that will look good under the Christmas tree. Registrations can be made via the homepage and at the Adult Education Center office as well as at the library; there will also be a box office.

At the last book presentation this year, everything revolves around the best books for Christmas and the current highlights on the book market. In an atmospheric setting, all those interested can be tempted to read and inspired to give as gifts.

A colorful mix of books for the Christmas season

There is something for everyone among the book titles. Bestsellers and insider tips from the world of fiction as well as exciting thrillers and crime novels. But also interesting book recommendations from the non-fiction area, such as travel literature, cooking and handicraft titles. In addition, experts present the highlights from the children's and youth book sector. The result is a colorful variety of topics, genres and authors. Afterwards, all participants will receive a book list.

Registration at the VHS and the municipal library

The event will take place on Wednesday, December 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the Bocholt Public Library. Admission begins at 7 p.m. The event is supported by the Verein und Förderer der Volkshochschule Bocholt-Rhede-Isselburg. Tickets are available in advance for 4 euros at www.vhs-bocholt.de,  at the VHS office or at the municipal library, and for 5 euros at the box office.
