BOUNCE - Bon Jovi tribute band in Bocholt

Exclusive WattExtra open air concert on 7 September 2024 at the Bahia

After the impressive successes of the last few years with great tribute bands, another open air highlight is coming up in September: BOUNCE - Bon Jovi Tribute Band is coming to Bocholt and will be performing on Saturday, 7 September as part of the WattExtra Open Air at the Bahia. Admission is at 6.00 pm, starting at 7.00 pm with the support band Six'n One Beats. "We are delighted to have BOUNCE on board for this concert series. It will once again be a very special evening", says Gisela Bollmann from Stadtmarketing Bocholt, who is organising the event. "This is now the sixth time that these concerts have taken place in the fantastic ambience of the old illuminated trees at the Bahia. The bands and the audience have always been enthusiastic and that should be the case again in September," continues Bollmann.

Who is BOUNCE?

BOUNCE has been successfully touring countless stages in Germany and neighbouring countries for more than 20 years, since 2001. With around 70 concerts a year, BOUNCE is the most booked Bon Jovi tribute band in Europe and has been regarded as the most authentic for many years, not only by insiders.

In addition to his extraordinary voice, singer Oliver Henrich impresses audiences with his energetic stage performance. In 2020, the likeable frontman took part in the casting show "The Voice of Germany" and achieved an outstanding 2nd place in the final.

"1984 - 40 Years of BON JOVI" is the name of the current tour in 2024, which will once again take BOUNCE across Germany and beyond. BOUNCE is a guarantee for a concert experience at the highest level. During the 2.5-hour show, the greatest Bon Jovi hits as well as some musical gems will be brought to the stage. A number of original instruments emphasise the professionalism of the five musicians.
