Fabric market on Sunday, 14 April again in Bocholt

Sewing is on the rise again

Following the successful two events in 2023, a large fabric market will be held in Bocholt again next Sunday. Over 80 Dutch traders from the organiser Stoffencircus will be offering a large selection of fabrics, haberdashery, leather and wool. The organiser has years of experience at various markets in the Netherlands, Belgium and Germany. From 11:00 - 16:30, the market in front of the historic town hall and St.-Georg-Platz will be transformed into a "paradise for do-it-yourselfers", according to the organiser. Curtains, upholstery fabrics, table linen and fabrics for clothing, bags and underwear will be on offer. "Sewing is absolutely on trend. We are therefore delighted to be able to offer the fabric market in Bocholt again together with the Stoffencircus", says Markus Kock from Stadtmarketing Bocholt.
