Bocholt. Four days of festive fun in Bocholt, and not only for families with children and young people, but also for the older target group. "A special highlight during the funfair days is the Volksbank eG senior citizens' afternoon, which was sold out to the last seat last year," says Markus Kock as funfair organiser, Stadtmarketing Bocholt, looking forward to the offer for older people.

Volksbank Bocholt eG Senior Citizens' Afternoon | Tickets available in advance

This year, on Friday 13 October, the Bocholt funfair will kick off with the traditional Volksbank Bocholt eG Senior Citizens' Afternoon in the Schumacherstand. The colourful musical afternoon with coffee & cake will take place from 3.00 pm to 5.00 pm. Admission is from 2.30 pm. Tickets at a price of €7.90 (including two cups of coffee and a piece of cake) can be purchased from Monday, 25 September at the Volksbank Bocholt eG - Hauptstelle at Meckenemstraße 10 up to and including Thursday, 12 October. Tickets are also available at the Tourist-Info Bocholt at Nordstraße 14. If the event is not sold out beforehand, those who decide to come late still have the chance to get a ticket at the box office in the Schumacherstand from 2.30 pm on the day of the event (the price at the box office is € 9.00).

Seat reservations for larger groups | Musical highlights

The seats are not numbered, but larger groups have the opportunity to reserve a table in advance at Stadtmarketing Bocholt - email: frericks\(at\)bocholt-stadtmarketing\(dot\)debocholt-stadtmarketing(dot)de) or call 02871/ 29 49 33-0. As in previous years, the Volksbank Bocholt Senior Citizens' Afternoon 2023 will again feature music. The singing trucker Winni Biermann, the Sporker Musikanten and the Plattdüsen Kring (a sub-group of the Bocholt Heimatverein, whose members are committed to preserving the plattdüsen language) will put visitors in a great funfair mood.
