After three successful years, "Theissens Comedy Hall" will take place for the fourth time this year. On 17.09.23 Atze Schröder will be on stage in the "hallowed halls" from 18:00 - a great event for the people of Bocholt, a nice event to celebrate the anniversary of Fliesen Theissen.

Fliesen Theissen is hosting a big Oktoberfest weekend again this year and the city marketing team is using the large company hall to treat comedy fans to a funny evening at "Theissen's Comedy Hall" after the Oktoberfest fun.

And this somewhat different comedy format seems to go down very well with the audience. "Of course, we hope that with the ever-popular Atze Schröder we will strike a chord with many long-time and perhaps newly won fans!" says Claudia Hasenkox of Bocholt's city marketing department. Atze was last in Bocholt in 2010 with his programme Revolution. Now he is coming in September with his programme "Echte Gefühle".

Atze Schröder continues "Echte Gefühle" tour 2023

Atze Schröder has been on tour again since March 2022 and immediately noticed how much he missed the stage and his fans. To complement the catch-up dates in 2023, he has therefore announced a series of additional shows. With "Echte Gefühle" (Real Feelings), the living legend and the King of Comedy will bring his hit programme to the stage.

"Everything is a lie," said Rio Reiser, the King of Germany. Nothing is real any more: fake news, filtered selfies, alternative facts, faked software. Everyone is just pretending, everyone is bluffing. There is no lurking place where we are not lying in wait. The people are confused. Only one can help: Atze Schröder, the guardian of all punchlines, with his programme "Echte Gefühle".

Atze is back in top form with "Echte Gefühle". He has never been more important than today, because in his programme the confessor of emotions talks about truthfulness. Because Atze knows: Statistically, we're doing great, it's only in terms of feeling that we don't have a good feeling. Men and women come home exhausted from work in the evening, but only Alexa and Siri want to cuddle with each other. Meanwhile, young people are manically looking at their mobile phone displays and acting like seals. Atze Schröder exposes the fake fifties. Preaches blood, sweat and tears. Atze praises the drama and puts the humour plaster on the nation's soul. Fulfils the longing for the important things in life: true love, real friendship, honest laughter. Because no one knows better than Atze: Leaving feelings out of life is no use at all - because real feelings always come back.
