

08. November 2022

Education and culture

Annual concert of the collegium musicum of the city of Bocholt

Sunday, November 13, 2022, at 18:00 in the Christuskirche //
Works by Bach, Larsson and Grieg

On Sunday, November 13, the annual concert of the collegium musicum of the city of Bocholt will take place. It begins at 18 clock in the Christuskirche Bocholt, admission is from 17:30. All music lovers are cordially invited to the concert, the ticket price is 8 euros in advance, at the box office 10 euros. Students, as well as pupils pay half.

Collegium musicum - the concert

J.S. Bach's Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in A minor opens the concert. The soloist is Vivian Krause, who after her lessons at the music school in Bocholt-Isselburg graduated from the music academy in Trossingen. She has recently become a permanent member of the Lübeck Philharmonic Orchestra.

The "Romance" by Swedish composer Lars-Eric Larsson leads into the colorful Norwegian Dances for large orchestra by Edvard Grieg. The collegium musicum Bocholt plays under the direction of Annette Oehmen.

Ticket sales

Tickets for the concert are available at the theater office (Meckenemstraße 10, 46395 Bocholt) and at the Tourist-Info Bocholt (Nordstraße 14, 46399 Bocholt). Admission costs 8.00 euros in advance (reduced 4 euros). At the box office a ticket can be purchased for 10.00 euros (reduced 5 euros).

*Vivian Krause spielt die Geige
© Herbert Kellermann*

Orchester des collegium musicum spielt im Altarraum der Christuskirche

© Herbert Kellermann