

09. February 2023

Education and culture

German-Dutch regulars' table invites to Dinxperlo

On 14 February at 7:30 pm // Registration at www.vhs-bocholt.de
// No Dutch language skills necessary

The German-Dutch Stammtisch will meet at the Noabertz in the Kulturhus at Maurits Prinsstraat 6, 7091 XC Dinxperlo on 14 February at 19:30. Registration is necessary for better planning. Interested persons can contact the office at the Weiterbildungszentrum, Stenerner Weg 14a (02871953-697) under the keyword Deutsch-Niederländischer Stammtisch or at www.vhs-bocholt.de, also for registration.

Everyone is welcome. At this meeting, Petra Taubach, who is responsible for town twinning at the City of Bocholt, among other things, will give a keynote speech on the topic of "New Euregio funding programme - practical examples" and will be happy to engage in an exchange with those present afterwards. No prior knowledge or preparation is necessary. Everyone will speak in their own language, just as it is at the border!

It is possible to attend the regulars' table as a guest or, if you attend regularly, to be entered in an address list of the Adult Education Centre. In this way, members are informed about the dates in advance with an invitation by post.

*German-Dutch flags.
© shutterstock (Aritra Deb)*